

REMINDER

Attention July 2010 Bar Applicants:

The registration period for applicants who wish to take the July Bar Examination using personal laptop computers will close on July 12, 2010. If you have not registered to take the July 2010 bar examination, visit the website of Extegrity, the approved vendor, at www.exam4.com. Any applicant who does not complete the registration process for the laptop program by the July 12th deadline date will automatically be assigned a seat in the handwriting section. If you choose to handwrite the exam, it is not necessary to notify the Committee.

You will be charged a fee of $105 to take the examination by laptop. Payment is only accepted via PayPal.com as reached by clicking the PayPal Buy Now button provided during the laptop registration process. You will not be considered properly registered until PayPal has verified your payment.

To ensure that you do not have any technical issues the day of the bar examination, it is imperative that you take a practice exam, carefully following all instructions from Extegrity that you will receive when you download the software as well as from the confirmation email that will be sent to you after registration is complete.

For technical requirements to use this software, go to www.exam4.com>FAQ>Technical Info

You must:

- A. Be able to download the software from the Internet and install it on your laptop. You must use the specific version of the exam software designated for the July 2010 Louisiana Bar Exam, which is clearly indicated on the software.
- B. Prior to the examination, familiarize yourself with how to use the software and how to plug a USB flash drive into your USB port. A USB flash drive will be provided for your use at the exam.
- C. Be willing to begin and/or continue with the examination by writing your answers in the event there is a malfunction with the computer, software, electrical power, or other technical difficulties.
- D. Understand and agree that applicants answers will be printed after the exam and applicants will not have an opportunity to review their answers in printed format prior to submitting their answers for grading.

Any technical or administrative questions, please go to the User Support section on the vendor's site, www.exam4.com.
