FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOUISIANA SUPREME COURT RESCHEDULES THE 2020 BAR EXAM DUE TO HURRICANE DELTA

The Louisiana Supreme Court announced today that considering the emergency declared statewide by Governor John Bel Edwards in Proclamation Number 133 JBE 2020 as a result of Hurricane Delta, which is forecast to result in widespread power outages that will adversely impact the administration of the remote bar examination on October 10, 2020 and present other safety risks for Louisiana citizens, the 2020 Louisiana Bar Exam scheduled for Saturday, October 10, 2020 has been rescheduled to Tuesday, October 20, 2020 on recommendation of the Louisiana Supreme Court Committee on Bar Admissions. The rescheduled date of Tuesday, October 20, 2020 was selected out of concern for the applicants to insure that they had access to adequate power after possible outages relating to Hurricane Delta and to minimize the delay and the disruption with the applicants' ongoing preparation for the exam.

Any applicant that is unable to take the exam on the rescheduled date due to adverse effects of Hurricane Delta will be allowed to postpone without penalty.

The Order issued by the Louisiana Supreme Court can be found here.
